ASTOR'S SON IS PRINCIPAL BENEFICIARY

Will Made Seven Months Before J. J. Astor Perished On the Titanic, is Made Public Today

CHARITY GIVEN JUST $30,000

No Provision Made For Wife Who Divorced Him; Widow Gets Trust Fund of $5,000,000.

New York, May 7.—Counsel for the family made public the will of John Jacob Astor, as drawn in this city in September last, only a few days after his marriage to Miss Madeleine Talmage Force and approximately seven months before he perished with the sinking of the Titanic.

Vincent Astor, a son, is made the principal beneficiary and residuary legatee. No hint as to the value of the great estate is given, and by the creation of trust funds the testator has followed, as far as possible, the custom of his forbears in keeping the vast Astor real estate holdings intact. Valuations of the estate run anywhere from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000. A close friend of the family said last night that the smaller figure, in his opinion, is nearer the correct estimate.

Aside from provisions for Vincent Astor the will provides for unconditional bequests of only $276,500. Among these there is but one of a charitable nature. This is $20,000 to St. Paul's School at Concord, N. H. The remainder of the legacies are to relatives, friends and faithful servants.

Nearly all other provisions of the will, as made public, deal with the trust funds of which there are three: $5,000,000 for the young widow; $5,000,000 for the colonel's only daughter, Mariel, the child of his former wife, Ava Willing Astor, and $3,000,000 for the expected posthumous child of the present widow. This latter clause provides for "each child who shall survive the testator other than his son, William Vincent, and his daughter, Ava Alice Mariel."

No provision is made for the wife who divorced him; and if the young widow dies or marries again the $5,000,000 trust fund, together with the town house and other property left to her, reverts to Vincent Astor. She receives, however, $100,000 outright, without further stipulation; and until the income from the trust fund shall become available, the trustees are directed to pay her an income of $200,000 a year.

There was an ante-nuptial settlement which she accepted in lieu of dower rights. The amount of this has never been made public. Rumors have it at $5,000,000.

The colonel gives the trustees minute directions concerning making investments, following almost word for word, instructions of a similar nature left by his father, William Astor. All bequests are made tax free, the taxes to be paid out of the residuary estate. As to proper investments he cites, among other things, real estate, railroad securities and the public debts of the United States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

WHEAT GOES UP TO $1.15

Flour Goes Up With It To $6.40 Per Barrel

Wheat took another hitch in the slack of its jeans Tuesday morning and went up a notch higher. Five cents was the step and it is now $1.15 per bushel, or $1.91 per 100 lbs. The result is that flour crawls up from $6.20 to $6.40, and slices of bread at the restaurant will be accordingly thinner.

HERE'S A BIT OF PRACTICAL GOODNESS

Philadelphia, May 7.—Rev. Wm. J. Miller of the Tabernacle Lutheran church, has requested as much as possible the shoe store of Mrs. Irwin Miller, who is struggling to pay back to the church the $1,350 stolen by her husband.

Italian Dirigible Manoeuvring in Tripoli

The above photograph, just received from the scene of the Italian-Turkish hostilities, was taken as one of the big Italian dirigibles was being maneuvered over a section of Tripoli occupied by Turkish troops, for the purpose of reconnoitering. During the last week, however, this and another similar air craft ascended from the Italian camp loaded with powerful bombs for an attack upon a fortified position of the Turks which had offered ed a stubborn and effective resistance to the approach of the Italian columns. After maneuvering directly over the Turkish Arab camp, out of range of field pieces, the Italian officers began a terrific bombardment from the skies. A frightful destruction was wrought in this manner. The Turkish position was almost completely obliterated, and those who escaped with their lives were captured by the Italian land forces.

LIQUOR CASE AT WARSAW IS DISMISSED

Lemuel Darr, In Whose Home Booze Was Found In Raid, Is Freed of Bootlegging Charge.

PROSECUTOR ASKS FOR DISMISSAL

Man Testifies That He Wrote Letters to His Son, Sometimes Three Times a Day.

Lemuel Darr was acquitted of the charge of illegally selling intoxicating liquors in the village of Warsaw, by the village mayor following a hearing held Monday afternoon.

Darr's home was raided by Marshal Gamertsfelder on May 2. He found a 1-gallon glass jug filled with whiskey, a 2-gallon earthen jug half filled with whiskey, a bottle of beer, 8 or 9 gallons of wine and 35 or 40 empty jugs.

It was learned that the wine found was made from grapes grown on Darr's property and Atty. L. N. Staats of Coshocton, prosecuting the case for the village did not use the finding of the wine as a circumstance against Darr.

Mr. Staats based his case on the facts drawn out in the examination of witnesses that 45 days before Coshocton county voted out the loose law Darr had received 4 boxes, supposed to have contained liquor from the Coshocton office of the Adams Express Co. That he did not have the liquor shipped directly to Warsaw Mr. Staats used as a circumstance but dismissed it because it had been several months ago.

Mr. Staats after examining all the witnesses asked that the case against Darr be dismissed as there was not sufficient evidence to convict.

One humorous feature of the trial was the testimony of a man named Clark who was asked why he had visited Darr's home so frequently. Evidence showed that he went there two and three times each day. Clark declared that he could not write and he went to the Darr home to have Mr. Darr write letters to his son. When he was asked if he wrote to his son three times a day he refused to answer.

Atty. J. C. Adams of Coshocton represented Darr.

SOPHOMORES ARE REGISTERING TODAY

The members of the sophomore class are being registered today and all of this week at the high school building for their work of next year. The juniors have already had their work planned out for the coming year, and the freshmen will be assigned their work just as soon as the members of the sophomore class are disposed of.

This plan of registering the students before the opening of school next year is used in order to expedite matters at the opening of school and to lessen the confusion.

Get Ready to Go to Mexico

War Department Issues Orders to Army Posts, All Over the Country, Today To Be Ready to March to Border At Any Minute.

Washington, May 7.—Army posts all over the country have been ordered to hold their men in readiness to move on the Mexican border on a moment's notice.

This was admitted by war department officials today, following the receipt of a second report from Col. E. Z. Steever, commanding the American forces at El Paso, Tex., relative to the shooting of Private Baker of the 22nd Infantry on Saturday.

The state and war departments today made no secret of their fear that a new uprising, more anarchical than that which was begun three months ago, will sweep over Interior Mexico,

NERVY WOMEN ARMED TO RESIST MEXICAN ATTACK

Mexico City, May 7.—Squad 11, Co. K., composed of sixteen resolute women, is the latest addition to the American army of defense in the Mexican capital. The women have armed themselves with Krag-Jorgensen rifles and have sworn to fight to the death if United States citizens living in Mexico City are attacked. All the women are single. The squad was formed by Victor Calvert, formerly an officer in the U. S. army in the Philippines, who turned over the female soldiers to commander in chief C. H. M. Agramonte. The majority of the women served as nurses through the Spanish-American war or in strikes and fever camps and all are used to hard life. Each woman has been supplied with 500 pounds of ammunition and they practice every afternoon. They range in age from 20 to 35 years.

EXPECT A SMALL VOTE

Jackson, Miss., May 7.—With the names of Congressman Oscar Underwood and Woodrow Wilson on the ballots, a preferential primary is being held throughout this state today to determine the choice of the democratic leaders. Owing to general apathy and the fact that planters are very busy at this time, being far behind in their operations, a small vote was looked for. Leaders said that if 25,000 votes—about one-fourth of the full vote—is polled, they will be surprised.

Leaders on the Underwood side made confident claims because this is Mr. Underwood's native state but the Wilson managers were not far behind in their own predictions. The four democratic delegates at large in the Baltimore national convention will be Gov. Brewer, ex-governor Vandaman, U. S. Senator John Sharp Williams and F. H. Alexander. Factionalism was much involved today in the district nominations.

STATE CONSTABULARY IS CALLED UPON TO PRESERVE ORDER AMONG STRIKERS

Rioting in Shenandoah, Mt. Carmel and Vicinity Causes Pennsylvania's Governor to Take Drastic Measures in Dealing With the Anthracite Coal Miners' Strike in Pennsylvania Field.

Union Officials Doing Everything in Their Power to Prevent Further Outbreaks—The Industrial Workers of America Trying To Wrest Control From United Mine Workers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 7.—Half of troop B of the state constabulary, a crack company of the state service, left here today under rush orders and heavily armed, for Shamokin and vicinity to reinforce the troopers now gathered there to quell rioting which started yesterday and raged all day in the vicinity of Shenandoah, and Mt. Carmel.

Following conferences between Gov. Tener, Superintendent Groome, the head of the state constabulary, and officials of Lehigh and Wilkesbarre, Susquehanna Coal Co. and the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., it was decided to concentrate at the scene of the rioting all the troopers it was possible to gather without leaving other centers of activity unguarded.

Officials of the coal companies conferred today relative to the situation, and it was determined to appeal to the governor to call out the state militia under the command of Major General C. B. Dougherty of this city, if the state troopers are unable to control the situation.

The union officials are doing their utmost to prevent further outbreaks of violence but appear unable to control the foreign element among the men. Those foreigners have been agitated and aroused by the Socialists in the region who are trying to induce them to gather several thousand strong and march on Harrisburg to demand from the governor state control of the mines.

The Industrial Workers of America who managed the Lawrence, Mass. strike are active throughout the region and are doing their utmost to wrest control of the anthracite workers away from the United Mine Workers of America.

At Mahanoy City today rioters turned out in force and prevented all workers going to the Primrose park and the Buck mountain collieries of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, while in the Lykens Valley section the rioters prevented many repair workers going to the collieries of the Mineral Spring Coal company.

Twenty-five men, many of them American born mine workers today offered their services to Superintendent Humphrey of the Lehigh Valley Coal company at Mt. Carmel, to guard the collieries and the workers. They said they vigorously opposed the rioting yesterday. Their services were accepted but there was no further rioting.

State troopers this morning charged a mass meeting at Shenandoah and, using their clubs, dispersed the crowd.

Roosevelt Gets Maryland Vote

Champ Clark Gets Majority of Democratic Delegates—Roosevelt Will Get Sixteen Votes From Maryland At Republican Conventions.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—On the face of the returns today, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will get Maryland's 16 votes in the republican national convention at Chicago.

Speaker Champ Clark, of the national house of representatives will have a majority of the democratic delegates of 16 to the democratic national convention will be instructed to vote for the speaker for the democratic nomination for president.

Col. Roosevelt will have 65 votes in the state convention, just a bare one over the 65 which constitute a majority of the 122 votes in the state convention. President Taft will have 62 votes and a further analysis of the returns may show that he may have sufficient friends among the delegates to control the personnel of the Maryland delegation. This will be important if Roosevelt cannot be nominated on the first ballot as the state republican leaders will then be able to throw them to Taft on subsequent ballots.

Roosevelt carried only seven counties outside of Baltimore city. These were Allegany, Garrett, Washington, Frederick, Prince Georges, Howard and Baltimore county.

The colonel swept Baltimore city, carrying all four legislative districts. Speaker Champ Clark was backed in his fight by the entire city democratic organization and he swept Baltimore and gets its 28 votes in the state convention.

Clark was also supported by the state organization and was an easy winner over Wilson and Harmon, and will have 80 votes in the state convention. Wilson, his strongest opponent, captured 45 while Harmon received the four votes of Worcester county, the home of U. S. Senator John Walter Smith, who is a staunch supporter of the Ohio governor.

ALLEN COUNSEL IS SATISFIED

Wytheville, Va., May 7.—Counsel for Floyd Allen expressed satisfaction this morning over the way things went at the hearing yesterday afternoon. They appeared in fine spirits when court opened.

The first witness called today was McNeil Surratt, of Carroll, who witnessed the shooting and all things leading up to it. When he saw Floyd Allen tumble in his sweater and heard him say "damned if I will go," witness "anticipated trouble" and walked towards the grand jury room. Mr. Surratt did not see Allen get his pistol nor did he observe any of the court officers with weapons in their hands.

Next to testify was H. K. Lindsay of Carroll. He was a member of the jury that tried the prisoner and had a lock of hair shot from over his left ear when the firing began. Mr. Lindsay said he heard Floyd Allen remark: "damned if I will go" then saw him begin shooting in the direction of Common Wealth Attorney Foster and Sheriff Webb.

Suit of Clothes Found On Banks of River Late Monday Night

Police today scout the theory that the clothes found on the banks of the Muskingum river late Monday evening by a man fishing belonged to a man who committed suicide by jumping into the stream. They believe either a practical joke has been attempted or some one has made a change of garments leaving the old ones on the river bank.

Jay Mott was fishing along the Muskingum at about 8 o'clock Monday night. He stumbled across a pair of trousers, a coat and vest, a suit of underwear, a necktie and collar, hose and shoes. "The whole outfit was in fairly good condition. The police were notified and Special Officer Laird took charge of the clothes. People living along the river were notified to keep on the lookout for any bodies but the police today do not believe anyone has been drowned.

Because it was dark, Darling could not perceive the wagon at the side of the road, and when the horse started it almost struck the wagon. THE CONFESSION OF MR. PERKINS ARBITERS VIEW LAND

IN WRATH BECAUSE HARVESTER PROSECUTION FACTS WERE PUBLISHED, HE TALKS TOO MUCH.

GREAT CONSPIRACY REVEALED

Allied Greed in Wall Street Joined the Disappointed and Disaffected to Discredit the Taft Administration When He Began Real Prosecutions of Various Trusts.

Washington, May 6.—(Special.)—

Mr. George W. Perkins, financial officer of the Harvester trust, director of the Steel trust, of the Standard Oil bank and several other Wall Street projects, became impatient. The ubiquitous and sleepless news gatherers had shown that he and Medill McCormick, the heir apparent to the Harvester trust, with the other capitalists of Wall Street who feared Taft's law-enforcing administration were financing Colonel Roosevelt's campaign; that Perkins personally had given $200,000 to the Roosevelt fund; that he was one of the four who met the Colonel at the Outlook office to formulate plans for inducing the people to make imperative demand that an unwilling Roosevelt be the candidate; that he in darkness and in a closed machine made a trip to the Oyster Bay side entrance after traveling from Washington to New York with Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt manager and that sworn report filed with the secretary of state of the receipts and disbursements of the managers of the primary showed Perkins to have furnished $15,000 and two other Steel trust men a like amount of the $60,000 spent in the primaries in New York City—which was $1.40 for each vote. Added to all these facts were various statements to the effect that Perkins represented Wall Street in its effort to defeat Taft with Roosevelt, to the end that they might secure a Republican candidate whom they could defeat with Harmon.

Kicked THE Sore, He Howls.

Under all this the Roosevelt managers were able to keep Mr. Perkins silent, but when correspondence referring to President Roosevelt's having called off the prosecution of the Harvester trust following the threat of Mr. Perkins that the friendship of the Morgans would be lost by pushing it, Mr. Perkins addressed an open letter to the Taft manager, Mr. McKinley. In it he puts up a defense in editorial to which he admits representing J. P. Morgan, the Rockefeller bank, the Steel and Harvester trusts and other Wall Street institutions and confesses furnishing funds for the recent New York primaries and for the campaign through which Roosevelt controlled the New York state convention of two years ago, which nominated Stimson for governor.

The Great Conspiracy.

These admissions throw light upon the persons who are advancing Roosevelt to get rid of Taft and illuminate the long-acting conspiracy of the Colonel and the trusts, he preached against but did not punish, to discredit the Taft administration and return it to power.

Partners in this conspiracy were Pinchot, within the administration, Garfield, who had been thrust out of it, Perkins and the allied law-breakers whom he represents. The Colonel during a year of effort to satiate his thirst for blood in the African wilds, could not be suspected of personally poisoning the people against Taft—that was done principally through Wall Street money coloring the news and by the 17 magazines in the trust President Taft broke up. The great hunter arranged for Mr. Pinchot to meet him at the edge of the African forest on the Upper Nile, at civilization's rim, to report progress.

But the Colonel returned in time to make the fight in 1910 which gave him control of the state of New York in the convention at Saratoga. This was Colonel Roosevelt's first move to get control in the nation.

The Feeder's Hand Bitten.

Through Mr. Perkins' angry outbreak, we learn by whom the ample funds for that fight were furnished. Mr. Roosevelt now repudiates Perkins' statement to be sure, but since he has repudiated his own statements in regard to reciprocity, the Harvester trust prosecutions and the disbursements in a third term and given the lie to public documents written by himself, no one is greatly surprised at this denial of a benefactor.

Mr. Alfred Henry Lewis recently printed in magazine a biting characterization of Mr. Perkins. In part this:

"In Wall Street, and about Drexel, Morgan & Co.'s the name of Mr. George W. Perkins is not altogether unknown. Indeed to be wholly frank, the name of Mr. Perkins in those swirling centers of warlike is not only known but celebrated. For years he was Mr. Morgan's principal rival of money, a kind of underdog financial pilot man to the Morgan shark."

"There lives no harm, no guile, in Mr. Perkins. Were you to meet him, his attitude one of waiting and reserve. He will pause for you to speak first, expect you to take a seat without invitation. His manner will be blandly attentive. He will not say a word until you have finished. He is a trained nurse manner."

"Narrowly placed between its offensive banks, currentless with a fall of two feet to the mile, whatever the course of policy by whomsoever in command, the Perkins nature offers no resistance, and he never so feebly lucid as to show you how shallow it is."

"All things have their uses, and in a Perkins nature the uses are most desirable. It buoyantly up whatever may be committed to its bosom; it offers no ripple of objection as he who commands it plods the tow path of his purposes. Such is Mr. Perkins."

The board of arbitration, J. W. Cassingham, Thos. McConnell and Henry Shaw, named by the county commissioners, and Third Haight to view the road passing through Mr. Haight's land north of Roscoe which he claims was damaged when the grade was changed to the extent of $1,000 and is now asking for that amount from the county, are going over the road Tuesday afternoon in an effort to form a settlement of the suit. With the arbitrators as the county commissioners, Prosecutor Klein representing the county and Atty. Levi Williams representing Mr. Haight's interests.

Mr. Haight started suit against the county road commissioners and the county commissioners some time ago for damages. He claims that when the grade of the road was changed it damaged his property, in as much as it was difficult to enter his land as a bank several feet high had been cut through his driveway.

The common pleas court held that the road commissioners is a body held by the county and the county commissioners had to bear the weight of the burden. The county commissioners do not deny that Mr. Haight's property was damaged but they and Mr. Haight could not arrive at a settlement so the board of arbitration was appointed. What the board decides the two parties will abide by.

Japan, China, Siam, India, South Africa and all the European countries were numbered among the various delegates assembled in the big white marble structure erected by Andrew Carnegie to perpetuate the fame of the twenty-one American republics, and everything seemed to point to the most interesting as well as the most complete conference ever held.

Even before the opening of the conference this afternoon great interest was evinced in the exhibition of 200 articles presented for competition for the $9,000 in prizes, the income of a fund donated by the Empress Marie Feodorovna of Russia. These articles consist of ambulances, litters, X-ray apparatus for the battlefield, etc., and Coffee Hurt You?

No need to get mad now, fear up the paper or shout "nonsense, good coffee never hurts anyone." You know better than that, for you can point out, all around you, folks who are the worse for coffee's slugging. Think over a few coffee-drinking friends and casually inquire if they are entirely and perfectly well and just how coffee treats them. If it hurts others, isn't it just possible? Catch the drift, don't you?

In fact, after having studied the matter a bit it will come plain that if you are a coffee-drinker the chances are that some form of incipient or perhaps fixed organic disease due to coffee has set in—constipation, rheumatism, eye trouble, nervous headaches, nervous prostration, or others of the well-proven coffee ills. One can decline to look the thing squarely in the face and peg along with the coffee. Some day Nature will haul him up SHORT!

What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more than the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs, for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been removed the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nasty waters, for these will not purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of

Climate Failed— Medicine Cured

It has been absolutely shown that rest, fresh air, and good food do help many persons suffering from Tuberculosis. But, to be really honest, it must be admitted that the disease cannot be cured by "resting." Something more is needed.

Eckman's Alternative is a medicine made for the cure of Tuberculosis. It has cured this disease again and again. Often these cures have been effected where the surroundings were not ideal, where the intelligent care was taken of the patient, where money was scarce, good food and good cooking unsatisfactory, where rest was not possible, and where the patient was not in a position to take pleasure in writing and a good book.

The facts—the evidence of cures that have been made—interesting reading. A remarkable cure follows—Weldon, Ill. (gentleman)—Through Eckman's Alternative I have been saved from premature grave, and, feeling that I might benefit suffering humanity, I take pleasure in writing you a word about my cure.

"On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia. My lungs became very much affected; my sputum was examined and Tuberculosis found. I was found on February 1, 1905, was advised to go to Fort Worth, Texas. While there an abscess in my right lung broke and discharged. I grew weaker and became very much emaciated. My physician informed me that I must go to Colorado as quickly as possible. I left Texas June 1st, and arrived in Canon City June 21st, very feeble. After being there two weeks, my physician informed me that nothing could be done, as my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I received a letter from a friend, who had been given me by a nurse of reaching there alive.

"On July 11, 1905, I was taken with Eckman's wonderful remedy for Consumption. It having been highly recommended, I bought a bottle. I took it as directed, and in ten days I was able to get up and walk. I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator. I have not an ache nor pain in my throat, my chest, my lungs, and never felt better. I would be glad if every person afflicted with Tuberculosis could get my cure. (Signed) ARTHUR WEIR.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet of cured cases, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and C. E. Anderson in Coshocton, Ohio.

CROWD EXPECTED AT INAUGURATION

Pres. Hibben To Be Made
Formal Head Princeton University

Princeton, N. J., May 7.—Officials of Princeton university, and members of the college community, are making extraordinary preparations to care for the thousand of visitors, alumni, college professors, students, friends and relatives, who will invade the town to attend the formal inauguration of President Hibben of Princeton university, on May 11. One of the official features of these preparations was the announcement today that the committee in charge of the inauguration had decided to hold the exercises on the steps of Nassau Hall in order to accommodate the crowd.

The inauguration will begin at 11 o'clock and will consist of the singing of a chorale, the reading of scripture and the offering of prayer, the administering of the oath of office to the president and the presentation to him of the charter of the university and the keys of Nassau Hall. These exercises will be followed by the president's inaugural address, a hymn and a benediction.

At 1 o'clock the university will give a large luncheon in the gymnasium in honor of the guests of the day, to which all the alumni will be invited, and for which all the congratulatory addresses will be reserved, in order that the alumni may hear them. Following the luncheon the guests will attend a ball game with Cornell at university field.

From 4 to 5 p. m. the president and Mrs. Hibben will receive at "Prospect."

In the event of rain, or weather otherwise unfavorable to an open air inauguration, the exercises will take place in Alexander hall, where it was originally intended to hold the ceremonies.

Invitations to send delegates to the inauguration have been sent out to colleges, universities and learned societies, and the interest manifested by these institutions will insure the attendance of some of the most famous men of letters in the United States.

PUT COLOR IN CHEEKS AND LIPS

Experience of a Sufferer from Thin Blood Who Thought
She Could Not Live.

The fact that one woman is bright-eyed, rosy-checked, strong and cheerful, while another is pale, weak and depressed is due more often than otherwise to the condition of the blood. The way to remedy this condition is to build up the blood and for this purpose there is no better tonic than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are for both men and women but they benefit the latter in a special way.

Mrs. Eva L. Richardson, of No. 32 Adams street, Laconia, N. H., says: "My health began to fail and for four years I was sick. The doctors said I was suffering from anemia. I was so pale and white that my flesh was almost transparent. I was very thin but my limbs and face were bloated. There was not a particle of color in my lips. I suffered from palpitation of the heart and could not go up and down stairs without stopping two or three times and holding on to the banisters for support. I had such terrible headaches that it was impossible for me to exert myself the least bit. My sleep was broken by snoring spells and in the day time I had dizzy spells. The doctor prescribed game for me but I could not eat very little. I could not even eat eggs. My mother read in a paper about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and of the good they were doing and, knowing that I could not live on as I was, thought there would be no harm in trying them. We were all surprised at the result. I soon began to have color in my cheeks and lips and felt much stronger. I continued using the pills until I was as well as ever. My health has been good ever since and I can heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed by the manufacturers to contain no opiate, narcotic or anything that could injure the most delicate system. A booklet, "Building Up the Blood," showing what these pills have accomplished in anemia, rheumatism, general debility and after-effects of fevers will be sent free on request.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or they will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

UNION LEADER SAYS STRIKE IS ILLEGAL

Chicago, May 7.—The strike of newspaper pressmen, stereotypes, newsboys and wagon drivers took a new turn today when President Jas. J. Freel of the stereotypes international order came to Chicago with the avowed intention of forcing the men in his union to return to work. The walkout of the stereotypes Freel asserted was illegal. They had, he said, violated their contract and he ordered them by telegram and long distance telephone from Newark, N. J., to return to work. When they refused, Freel, with other international officers, hurried to Chicago. Today he planned to meet the officers of the striking local here and order them back to work. The strike which was called only a few days after the stereotypes had signed their contract with the publishers here may involve the local in serious difficulties with the international body. Pres. Freel's telegram ordering the men back, were specific. Since the order was disobeyed, it is likely that a serious penalty will be imposed on the strikers here and it is said that the executive committee may vote the revocation of the local's charter for disobedience and violation of contract. The most serious phase of the strike today is the newsboys' walkout.

In sections of the city where violence was anticipated the newspapers were sent out under heavier guard than ever. Automobile trucks were escorted by a convoy of motor cycle policemen.

No reports of violence were received during the early hours. Disorders marked the sale of papers late yesterday however, and streets in the loop district today were strewn with editions of the afternoon papers that had been taken away from vendors by strikers and their sympathizers.

STONE CREEK HOODLUMS RIOT AT A PARTY

Urichsville, O., May 7.—As a result of a fight between a crowd of youths from Canal Dover and one from Stone Creek a party held at the latter place was broken up and Roy Watters, twenty-three years old, Canal Dover, has a fractured skull, and Daniel Mizer, twenty years old, Stone Creek, has a broken jaw. Watters is at the Union hospital.

The fight resulted from what the Stone Creek crowd claims was an effort on the part of the Canal Dover boys to get into the good graces of the Stone Creek girls to the social detriment of the boys of that village. A crowd of twenty had gathered for a social evening, but the animosity of the two factions was aroused, and following the supper the male guests went outside and fought. Efforts of the girls to prevent the fight were unavailing.

Watters claims he was struck on the head with a club. His skull was fractured by the heavy blow, but his physician says he will live. Mizer, of Stone Creek, being treated for a broken jawbone. The sympathy of the girls is said to be with the Canal Dover crowd.

SETTLEMENT IS IN SIGHT

Chicago, May 7.—Officers of the striking freight handlers today expressed the belief that the differences with the railroads would be adjusted within a few days and the men would return to their places.

The strike leaders today were confident that the railroads would be willing to grant at least a part of their demands. They are particularly anxious to secure a Saturday half holiday.

The One Big Hit

at all the great automobile shows held in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and other big cities—the one car that stood head and shoulders above all the hundreds of cars shown—was the

Maxwell "Mascotte"

This was because the Maxwell "Mascotte" is the first real high-grade family touring car ever offered the public for less than $1000.

That it fits the niche we knew was waiting for it, has been amply proven by the manner in which it was received by the public at the shows.

At all the shows the Maxwell "Mascotte" drew enthusiastic approval. It was conceded wonderful value. Such judgment by the motoring public demands your consideration in your search for the best car at the price.

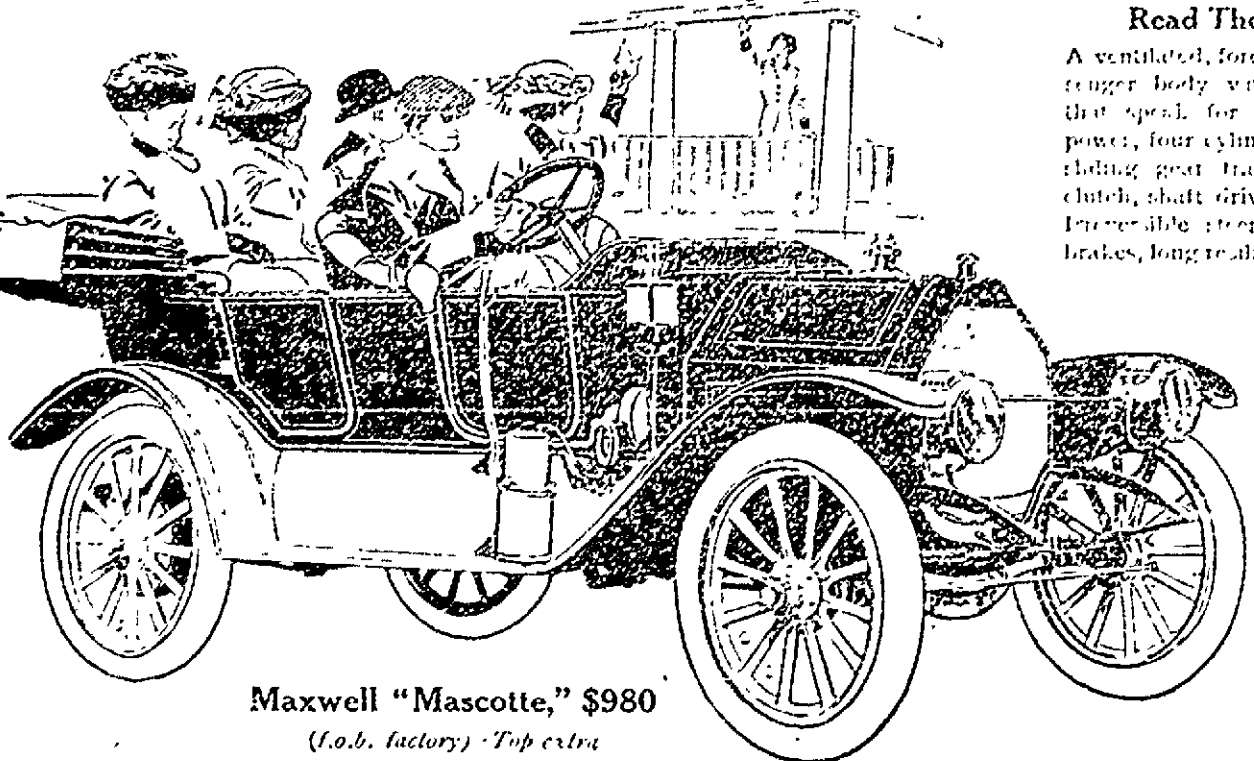

No other car at such a price meets so completely the requirements of the family man—the man of moderate income.

In the Maxwell "Mascotte" you have room for the whole family—power enough in its 25 horse-power motor for any emergency—hills or heavy roads—and high-class style that you can be proud of.

Maxwell reliability, too, is a part of this car. No other car has back of it such a record. Maxwell holds the highest team score in the last two Glidden Tours; the world's record of 10,000 miles cross-country without stopping motor; and records of New York State show 91% of the Maxwell cars sold seven years ago again registered this year in active service.

Let us show you the high-priced car features embodied in the "Mascotte."

Come in today—have a ride in it.

THE MERCHANT'S SIDE

There is little wonder that the average retail merchant all over the United States is against the parcels post legislation. Put yourself in his place for a moment and the justice of his position is readily demonstrated.
The retail merchant in a town like this, or a village like West Lafayette or Warsaw spends money to court local trade. He is different from the merchant of the city where there is a big transient trade and a very wealthy trade. The big city merchant has a clientele so diversified that he can get several times the profit a local man gets and when he cuts to cost, the difference is so great it looks like a tremendous bargain.
But the small town retailer must sell to his friends whom he knows in every walk of life. He must not only sell them at a reasonable figure but he must sell stuff that "stands up," for he is expected to make good.
There is a personality in local merchandising. The greatest enemy the retailer has is the mail order house. In the first place the mail order house gets the cash before the goods are bought; we expect the home merchant to await our own convenience to pay. And the average man is more easily satisfied when buying "sight unseen" than "he" is when shopping. It is current rumor in retail trade circles that Chicago mail order houses have men out selecting sites for depots, should parcels posts win. The intent would be to have a distributing point at every county seat and then to get advantage of the county parcels rate.
It is declared that Standard Oil is now owner of the greatest Chicago mail order house and that they expect to do to the retail merchandising what they have done to oil production and distribution. How much oil is used today that does not pay profit to Rockefeller? How much retail merchandising will be done without his title if his plans carry?
Brought to full fruition, the success of the full mail order dream would mean the annihilation of retail stores in Coshocton, Warsaw and West Lafayette, save as emergency stations for thread, calico and sugar. Is it any wonder fearing that parcels post will be a great asset to the already omnipotent mail order house, that the retail merchant is earnestly and seriously against it?

Spring-Cleaning

The Human System Needs It.

UP TO TEDDY

President Taft seldom gets off a joke. Not even Mr. Roosevelt accuses him of that. But he speaks at good joke yesterday in his speech at Athens. He called attention to the fact that Mr. Roosevelt is making his campaign "against bosses." That is the burden of his lay. Who is the one "boss" in Ohio, save Walter Brown? And Mr. Brown is the whole works of the Roosevelt boom in this state. That's where the joke comes in. Since the days of George B.
Cox the only man in the Republican party in this state who has been accused of being the "boss" in Mr.
Brown. He has been held up before the voters of the state as a frightful bug-a-boo. In other states Mr.
Roosevelt has been turning hand springs because of the "bosses" there.
In Ohio he is chucking with the only one we've got. The question is, will Mr. Roosevelt attack "bosses" when he speaks in Ohio, and thus make it very embarrassing for his really very good friend, Mr. Brown?

BAACKES WILL BE WITNESS

New York, May 7. It was announced just before the hearing in the government a dissolution suit was resumed before Examiner Henry T. Brown in the custom house today that Frank Baackes, vice president and general sales agent of the American Steel and Wire Co., would be an early witness. It is Mr. Baackes who destroyed the trunkful of letters and papers which had been used by the government in the wire pole case of 1910, causing the government to sue for an injunction to prevent other evidence of the same nature. Times Bull printed three columns and books from his pocket and frequently read them up and down with the ends he was unable to answer the question put to him. Mr. Bull had told Judge Bull on direct examination that he knew of his own personal knowledge that companies absorbed the American Steel and Wire Co. had been in competition before their absorption. Attorney Richard A. Landabue for the steel company, asked more light on this subject and asked intricate questions as to business affairs of the companies which the witness could not answer. Among the companies named by Bull as having been in competition before being amalgamated with the American Steel and Wire Co. were the Washburn Moen, the American Mills Co. (formerly the American Wire Co.), the Pittsburg Wire Co. and the South Side Works of Pittsburg. These were among the twenty-nine wire-making companies, which were formerly independent.

To Hold School Exhibit

Manual Training and Sewing Classes To Show Their Work

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the fourth annual exhibit of the manual training and domestic science work of the Coshocton public schools will be held in the Racket building on Walnut street. During the past three years these exhibits of the work of the public school pupils have been held with much success, but the one this week promises to exceed all others in point of completeness and the quality and quantity of work shown.

The exhibit will consist of samples of work from every school in the city, including the high school Shop work, drawing, sewing and embroidery work, will constitute the majority of the exhibit, and all of it is the handy work of Coshocton scholars, who during the past year have been under the instruction of efficient instructors among these different lines. Some of the best work that has ever been turned out by the pupils of the local schools will be shown at the exhibit, and it will be well worth the while of anyone to come and examine this useful work which is being taught in all of the schools of the city.

Supt. Bryant expressed himself today as being very highly pleased with the progressive work that is being done by the pupils of the local schools, along these different useful lines, and especially wanted it urged that all attend this exhibit who possibly could. Manual training and domestic science work is gaining a stronger foothold in the schools of Coshocton every year, said Supt. Bryant, and these exhibits are given every year in order to let the public see just what kind of work is being done and what progress is being made.

TO INVESTIGATE ARCHBALD CHARGE

Washington, May 7. With doors locked and with stenographers and committee clerks excluded, the house committee on the judiciary began today a secret investigation of the charges against Judge Robert V. Archbald of the commerce court. Outlined in papers transmitted to the committee from the department of justice by the president last Saturday.

The set on these papers were broken today by Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee and its members had a opportunity to see the nature of the department's investigation of the charges brought against Judge Archbald in February and which may possibly result in impeachment proceedings against the judge. Until the committee decided whether or not the record is to be made public, members of the committee were enjoined to secrecy regarding the exact nature of the charges. Judge Archbald will not be called by the committee. The resolution under which the judiciary committee is acting authorizes it particularly to determine whether the commerce court judge has been guilty of "an impeachable offense." In the event impeachment proceedings are ordered, they may have the effect of prolonging the case.

River Still Rises

Flood Along Mississippi Is Still at Dangerous Stage

New Orleans, La., May 7.—With the Mississippi river still rising and pouring through the levee banks inundating lands that have never before been flooded, the situation today caused great anxiety. That loss of life already reported heavy near New Roads as a result of the rap in the dike at Torras would be increased to a startling toll was the fear of those who have been in charge of the work on the levees. Rescue work was pushed with energy today. Motor boats collected from various places were sent out from New Roads and other places in the Torras flood section in an effort to save persons reported marooned by the floods. At least 1,000 persons are at Bachelor and Lettsworth and the fleet of rescue boats was sent there to bring them to safety. Railroad communication with these towns was cut off late yesterday when a rescue train sent out over the flooded tracks in an effort to reach the people went through the weakened embankment. No one was hurt.

Appeals from Lettsworth say the situation there is serious. At least fifty persons sheltered in the houses that have been dislodged from their foundations and sent floating in the flood are in danger of drowning. In Pointe Coupee parish the floods are inundating town after town and reaching sections which never before have been under water. The inhabitants are panic-stricken. The damage there will amount into the millions. Appeals for boats to be used in the rescue work were received today by Governor Sanders, who is here. The governor has issued orders that every available boat be sent to the flooded section.

TORNADO DESTROYS TOWN, IS REPORTED

Moherly, Mo., May 7.—An unconfirmed report reached here today that Remick a small town six miles south of Moherly was practically destroyed by a tornado that swept through this section last night. Six persons are reported killed. Wires are down and no news direct from the scene has been received. A party immediately started for Remick but has not yet returned. The wind did considerable damage here.

The De Tumble Sales Company have always sold gasoline at the per gallon and never advanced an advance in price. Furthermore they will continue to sell it at 16c unless they have to buy it at that price. They are satisfied with a legitimate profit.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and cleans healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs.

Constipation is the most unclean uncleanness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

MR. TAFT FIGHTS MEAN ATTACKS

SHOWS HOW ROOSEVELT MISQUOTES, MISREPRESENTS AND PERSONALLY SLANDERS HIM.

T. R. TEACHES CLASS HATRED

Is a Serious Menace to Constitutional Government Because of his Power With People and Disregard for Courts and Constitution.

Speaking at Baltimore, Mr. Taft said:

The truth about the Harvester Trust is that Mr. Bonaparte thought it ought to be prosecuted. Mr. George W. Perkins, who was a director in the Harvester Trust, then a director in the Steel Trust and also a member of the firm of Morgan Co., came over to Washington and pleaded with Mr. Herbert Knox Smith, of the Bureau of Corporations, not to bring the suit, and induced Mr. Smith to make a report to Mr. Roosevelt in which he set forth the fact that the Steel Trust and the Harvester Trust and the other Morgan interests had attempted to carry out Mr. Roosevelt's idea of publicity, and, therefore, they ought not to be subjected to prosecution under the anti-trust law, even though they were technically guilty, threatening that if they were prosecuted they would fight the Administration; would give them no more access to their books, and would conduct themselves in opposition to the Administration.

The result was that Mr. Smith made a report on the 21st of September to Mr. Roosevelt, in which he detailed this conversation and recommended that no suit be brought until he had made a full investigation of the Harvester Trust.

The Harvester Trust.

"Before this a report was made by the Assistant District Attorney of North Dakota and by the District Attorney of Minnesota that there was ground for prosecuting the Harvester Trust; that this trust had violated the anti-trust law. Between September 21 and the 1st of November the matter was under consideration, and on the 7th of November the president directed Mr. Herbert Knox Smith to notify Mr. Perkins that no prosecution would be begun until after the investigation. That settled the matter because that was what Mr. Perkins asked for."

"Now, Mr. Roosevelt says that I was present in the Cabinet meeting in which it was decided not to prosecute the trust until after the investigation. As a matter of fact, I was not in the country between August and December.

"I had been to the Philippines and was on my way around the world. Mr. Bonaparte says that the Cabinet meeting took place in January. This is altogether a mistake, as it is shown by Mr. Smith's diary that the matter was decided in November. Discussions, therefore, could not have been had with a view to deciding anything, because the decision already had been made, and Mr. Perkins had been notified that his application had been granted.

Good Roosevelt Trusts.

"These are the circumstances tending to show and illustrate what Mr. Roosevelt means by good and bad trusts.

"He means to introduce a benevolent despotism in which he means to select the trusts which he thinks ought to continue and smash those he thinks ought not to continue, and as he has said that anti-trust law ought to be repealed and supervisory laws passed he leaves no guide by which to determine those trusts which are violating the law and those which are not.

"It is one of those pleasant arrangements for a man who likes to exercise arbitrary power and is most useful in giving an instrumentality for the maintenance of power that is hardly to be excelled.

"I am not attacking Mr. Roosevelt as influenced by improper motives in his attitude toward the trusts. I am only pointing out that, in view of his attitude toward the trusts, in view of his having favored trusts that he thinks are good trusts and ought to be encouraged, one of whose directors aided him in his campaign and contributed largely to his funds, he is in a very weak position to charge me with being under the control of the interests and being the candidate of special privilege and being supported by all who are against the people.

His Vicious Virtue.

"Mr. Roosevelt's assumption of virtue is so intense that it is sufficient to purify any one when he becomes a supporter of Mr. Roosevelt, even though it be a trust, and even though it be a director of a trust contributing to his campaign.

"In other words, when the facts are shown with reference to his wanting to prosecute certain trusts, and with

Spring Medicines Not Necessary

for the chap who eats

GRAPE-NUTS

"There's a Reason"

Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

reference to contributions from a directing officer of such trusts, it hardly lies in his mouth, as a matter of the square deal, to charge me with being controlled by special interests and privilege when the record of my administration shows a prosecution of all the trusts without regard to their directors, and without regard to the influences that control them.

"The prosecutions of this administration are based solely on the violations of the statutes. The criticism that has been made of my administration is that I have been too thorough in the prosecution of trusts. Certainly, I have exempted none on account of the pleas of their directors, and there are no contributors that I know of who can point to any immunity from prosecution in my administration.

Falls From Own Standard.

"I propose, with your permission, to go over a few of the positions and statements that he has made in this regard to show you how far he has fallen from the standard that he himself sets up of a square deal.

"As to popular government and his misquotation.

"As to bosses and my association with them and his association.

"As to the Lorimer case and his misleading the people of Illinois.

"As to the character of the election of delegates for me and for him.

"His classing me as a reactionary, because I associated with Cannon and others, in securing legislation to fulfill the Republican platform and did so at his instance.

"Reciprocity, when he favored it before its adoption.

"Misrepresentations as to the railroad bill.

"His misrepresentations as to my being under the control of the interests, and his being free from them.

"Mr. Roosevelt's chief theme is to attempt to stir up class feeling and hatred and to array those who have not much against those who have more, a plan most dangerous to make in a community and one which in his calmer moments, when not seeking an office, he would deprecate in others as emphatically as he pursues the course now.

May Form Coffee Habit.

"Mr. Roosevelt having first announced that he would never be a candidate or accept a nomination, now says that he meant that he would not be a candidate for a consecutive third term; but now he is content to take another cup of coffee and become a candidate.

"He first said that he would not be a candidate, that it would be a calamity; then he said he would not be a candidate unless the people rose and demanded it; then he said he would be a candidate if the nomination came to him, and that he would stay in the convention until the matter was decided. Finally he has engaged in hunting the nomination with all the avidity of one who had never been a candidate before.

"I have no criticism to make of his course if the people are content with it. I do not condemn him for changing his mind after he had made a promise to the people never to become a candidate and accept another nomination. It is a matter which he has to settle with his own conscience. Men do change their minds and are not bound, however much the people think they are; but I do think it is a dangerous precedent to break down the constitutional tradition that we have had—that a man shall not have more than two terms of the presidential office.

If Over Two, Why Not Ten?

"If any one has more than two terms, there is no reason why he should not have four or five terms. But Mr. Roosevelt says he should be elected, because he says he is a necessity, that the people think there is no one else who can do the job. The job is, apparently, from what he says, to bring about a condition of social justice.

"He does not say how he is going to bring it about; and as it seems to change gradually our present conditions, and as it would take a long time to effect such tremendous reforms, we must therefore look forward to his view that a lifetime may be necessary.

A Crisis Is Here.

"With his power of inducing the people to support him, with the opportunity that a president has, and as active as he is in politics to perpetuate his power, he becomes a real danger. And with his little regard for constitutional restriction, his little regard to the due process of law, I can not but think that there is a great crisis in the country's history involved in the question whether now for a third term he shall be the nominee of the Republican party and be elected to the presidency."

Wear Smaller Shoes, Larger Smiles

Let every corn victim rejoice! Wonderful "Bingo" stops severest corn pains at once! Just paint the corn—a second's time—say "bingo!"—bingo's gone! Greatest invention for foot growths since Adam.

Means a riddance to worst corns, calluses, bunions that ever grew on human feet. Not partial riddance, whole plagues them good every time!

"Bingo" enables lots of folks to wear size smaller shoes, size larger smiles. Makes not smooth as a white shoe shine on so easily, painlessly, you forget you ever had foot trouble.

"Bingo" shrinks the corn, loosens it—down to the roots and out it comes just like that! Doesn't hurt healthy tissue. Bingo's as different from usual "corn cures" as night from day. Get it and see.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so have long been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Prescription for eczema, and absolutely guarantee that it will take away the itch the instant you apply it. If you are suffering from any form of skin trouble we would like to have you come to our store, for we have had the benefit of this remedy for so many years that we can tell you all about D.D.D. Prescription and how it cures eczema. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work. For that matter a trial bottle for 25c ought to be enough to absolutely prove the merits of the remedy.

Drop into our store anyway and we will tell you all about this great remedy.

Here it is for 50c

and Six Daily Age Coupons

This is the same splendid Centennial History of which hundreds and hundreds of copies were sold at $1.00 and worth easily twice that. The history is absolutely authentic, written after long personal research by Judge Nicholas, in an engaging narrative style that has great charm. Moreover it is unquestionable the finest illustrated history ever published. Nearly $1000 worth of half tone engravings of Coshocton county scenes and places were used in this production.

A few were left over after last summer's Centennial celebration. The Daily Age has purchased the lot and offers the History at exactly half the original price.

Bound in limp board, printed on heavy cream-laid paper, it is a book of remarkable and unusual beauty. Every home in Coshocton-Co. should have this home-history. Every boy, every girl should be familiar with it. As long as the limited supply is left, you can get a regular $1.00 copy for Use of Powders in History.

The primary use of powders was for the adornment of the hair, dyes, and powders of blue, red and green being affected by the Saxons in place of the gold dust with which Jews and Romans were wont to sprinkle their locks. Later wheaten flour and rice powder were adopted, both for hair and face, and these were not introduced into England until later Plantagenet days, when a very decided change in dress made itself apparent.

Escapes An Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, it's the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. W. Ferguson of Roscoe; C. E. Anderson.

HORSE STUTTERS WITH ITS FEET

Peter Burtis, proprietor of the shoe shining stand at McManus' corner, owns a very handsome road horse, the only fault is it bolts at both ends when standing on a canter. He induced Fred Wagner, manager of the Gamble grocery, to use the horse attached to the delivery wagon, to tame it down. The nag was hitched up Tuesday morning and started down street like a bucking broncho. The agreement immediately ended.

A SENSIBLE WAY TO CURE A COLD, CLEAR HEAD AND STOP CATARRH

No Stomach Dosing, No Quinine, or Acetanalid and No Waiting for Results

Here is a simple, harmless, effective treatment for colds, croup, catarrh, hay fever and all diseases and stoppages of the air passages that will appeal to everyone.

Nearly everybody suffers more or less with colds and catarrh in some form, and need this treatment. The nostrils and the air passages are the breeding places for germs. When the passages are sore, inflamed and sensitive you catch cold easily and colds quickly lead to catarrh, etc. The quickest way to cure colds and prevent catarrh is to apply the treatment direct to the seat of the trouble and destroy the catarrh germ before it has time to do harm.

The Nostril Treatment prevents as well as cures colds and catarrh. It quickly reaches and heals the sore inflamed mucous membranes, destroys the catarrh germ, and not only breaks a cold in a few hours, but this simple treatment strengthens the linings of the air passages, so that they are able to throw off colds.

Nostril is sold in handy sanitary tubes. 25 cents for sixty days' treatment. Get a tube of your druggist to-day and you'll wish you had tried Nostril sooner.

ENDS LIFE IN A N. Y. HOTEL

Former Local Man Was
Member of Coshocton
Masonic Lodge

Theodore Lehman, a lithographer, formerly employed at the H. D. Beach plant in this city, but who for the past five years has been working at his trade in New York, killed himself in his room in a hotel in that city a few days ago. The means the man took to end his life is not known. News of the suicide was received here Monday night by the local Masonic lodge, of which Lehman was a member.

Lehman was about 55 years old. He had no relatives in this country, but there is one brother in Germany.

After the body was discovered in the room in the hotel it was taken to a morgue where it was identified by the means of lodge cards which the man carried in his pockets. Robert Bruck, of Chicago, formerly of this city, was the first one to be notified of the man's death, and he at once notified the local lodge of Masons. E. H. Higgins, of Passaic, N. J., a member of the local lodge, was notified of Lehman's death and he will go to New York to represent the local lodge at the funeral.

The Demons of the Swamp are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength falls; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters still and cast out the malaria germs from the blood, give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fietwell, of Lacama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50c at C. E. Anderson; and C. W. Ferguson, of Roscoe.

LOCAL MEN BUY WESTERN FRUIT FARM

James W. Moore, of this city, and Arthur Caton, of Olympia, Wash.,

"Dear Mary, I'll tell you a secret! It is the tonic properties carried in the father of Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream into the roots of the hair, that stops the hair coming out and stimulates its growth, just as water does a plant."

Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream is so different from ordinary shampoos and head washes that it cannot be classed with them. You need to try it once to realize that it represents an entirely new idea in hair treatment. It cleanses the hair beautifully and makes it grow and you can use it as often as you want to. It only costs 25c a tube, enough for three or four shampoos. You can get it at C. E. Anderson's drug store.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Coshocton Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, A Lame, Weak or Aching one, Would you experiment on 112 Pills? You will read of many so called cures.

Endorsed by strangers from far-away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove local testimony. Home endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Read this case: A. J. Shepler, 127 Water street, Coshocton, Ohio, says: "My kidneys bothered me a great deal. The kidney action was irregular and the secretions contained sediment. I also had pains through my back and kidneys. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised at Siekrist & Williams' drug store, I procured a supply and they gave me complete relief."
